

LOCAL MENTION.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

National-Blanche Walsh in "The Straight Road," 8:15 p.m.
Columbia-"Coming Through the Rye," 8:15 p.m.
Belasco-"The Secret Orchard," 8:15 p.m.
Cassidy-"The Secret Orchard," 8:15 p.m.
Majestic-Kathryn Purnell in "Sign of the Cross," 8:15 p.m.
New Academy-"Buster Brown," 8:15 p.m.
Cassidy-The Rose Hill English Folly Company, 8:15 p.m.
New Lyceum-Watson's Burlesques, 8:15 p.m.
Convention Hall-Roller skating, morning, afternoon and night.

EXCURSIONS TOMORROW.

Norfolk and Washington steamers for Port Monroe, Norfolk and Jamestown, leaving at 8:30 a.m. and every other morning on and dates at 8:30 a.m.
Electric trains from 12th street and Pennsylvania avenue for Mount Vernon leaving at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. and Alexandria every 15 minutes.
Cars from station at Aqueduct bridge for Arlington, Fort Myer and Falls Church half hourly.
Steamer Lakewood from Alexandria every hour and a half from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Steamer Charles Macalester for Mount Vernon at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.
Great Falls cars leave Great Falls and Old Dominion railroad station, 30th and N streets.

No. 1 Cypress Shingles, $5.50 Per 1,000. Frank Libbey & Co., 6th & N.Y. ave.
Great River Spring Water, 4 Gal., 50c. Office, 704 11th st. Phone Main 962.

Mrs. Mary Powell, colored, sixty-four years of age, fell on the stairs at her home, 1500 Union court, last night and sustained a painful injury to her arm. She was taken to the Emergency Hospital and given treatment.

Look Out! Prices of Lumber Much Lower. Frank Libbey & Co., 6th & N.Y. ave.

C. A. Muddiman & Co.
Handsome Electric and Gas Lamp Lights. Art Glass Dome Chandeliers. 1204 G St. Phone 1212.

Flooring (Very Good), $2.00 Per 100 ft. Frank Libbey & Co., 6th & N.Y. ave.

New Furniture and New Buggies.
For auction Wednesday morning, commencing 10:30 a.m. Sale commences with about twenty beautiful rugs in carpet and smaller sizes, followed by this furniture for every room in the home, all direct from standard manufacturers. Four hundred country and city buggies, including new and used, will be sold. Wilson & Mayers, 1227 and 1229 G St.

Dressed Siding (Clear), $2.00 Per 100 ft. Frank Libbey & Co., 6th & N.Y. ave.

CITY AND DISTRICT.

A collision occurred this morning at the intersection of 14th and I streets between a street car and an express wagon. The wagon, owned by George C. Eagon, Smith, living at 1224 Church street, about $20 damage to the wagon was the result of the accident.

Thomas Morrison, seventy-two years of age, living at Laurel, Md., was knocked down by an express wagon in front of the United depot yesterday afternoon and slightly injured. Mr. Morrison was on his way to the station to go home on the 4:30 train at the time he received the injury. The accident did not cause him to miss the train.

For Good Shepherd House.

The annual sale of Christmas articles and tea for the benefit of the house of the Good Shepherd will be held at Rauscher's Wednesday, December 11, from 3 to 6 p.m. Madame Jeanne, Mrs. White, Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. Preston Sands, the Disses, Callen, Mrs. Lacombe, Mrs. Perry Johnson, Mrs. McCarty, Miss Whelan, Mrs. Mann with a host of debutantes will have charge of the various tables and no one can afford to miss the sale.

Robbed of Her Pocketbook.

Complaint was made to the police last night that Mrs. Bettie Smith, colored, living at 1736 New York avenue, was knocked down and robbed while on her way home about 7:30 o'clock. She told the police that she was being summoned to the Treasury Department building, when she was attacked by a colored man. When she realized that he was attempting to rob her she made an effort to fight him off, but he succeeded in getting her pocketbook, which contained a cake of soap, a bottle of medicine and a package of toilet powder. Mrs. Smith made a report to the police and said she would be able to identify him.

Thousands of letters every week pass through the private letter boxes at the Star office. These are answers to small advertisements in the classified columns of the Star. As there is no charge for the use of the boxes, many persons make free use of the convenience.

Struck by a Street Car.

Thomas Garner, fifteen years of age, was struck by a street car yesterday afternoon and painfully injured. The boy, whose home is at 351 M street northwest, the police report, was stealing a ride on the private letter boxes at the Star office. He was struck by the car at 6th and B streets, he was struck by a car on the other track. At the Emergency Hospital the surgeons found him suffering from slight contusions and a painful bruise. He was taken to 45th home after he had received treatment.

Same Old Excuse.

Jackson Tolliver, colored, was being tried before Judge Kimball on a charge of larceny. Tolliver was found by Special Officer Kelly trying to sell a bottle belonging to the Pabst Brewing Company. "Where did you get that bottle?" Judge Kimball asked Tolliver. "I bought it from a boy, who said his name was Walter," stated the defendant. "Don't know where he lives or his last name," continued the judge. "No, sir," said Tolliver. "You expect me to believe that?" the judge replied. "I have heard that you are at least 16,000 times since I have been on the bench. Why don't you get a new story?" The sentence was $20 or sixty days.

Slow Printing Doesn't Mean

good printing. Byron S. Adams prints quickly and prints best. 512 11th st.

Railway Sued for Damages.

Francis Myers, eleven years old by his father James A. Myers, has filed suit in the District Supreme Court to recover $10,000 from the Brightwood Railway Company for alleged personal injuries. According to the declaration filed by Attorney Joseph D. Sullivan, the boy fell into an excavation near the company's track on Brightwood avenue near W street May 25 last and sustained serious injury. Negligence is charged against the company for an alleged failure to barricade the excavation.

J. H. Small & Sons, Florists, Washington and New York—Advts.

Judge in Cupid's Court.

Judge Alexander R. Mullenberry left yesterday afternoon for Asbury Park, N. J., where he will be a participant in the court of Cupid. Wednesday at high noon he will meet Miss Marie Magdalene Thomas at the altar in the Hotel Marlborough and they will be married. Justice Bundy will preside over the District branch of the court during the absence of Judge Mullenberry. He has planned a honeymoon of about ten days' duration.

MASONIC FAIR BOARD MEETS.

Auditing Committee Takes Charge of Remaining Business.

The board of control of the Masonic Fair Association met last night, received a final report from Chairman B. F. Smith and completed its work.
The auditing committee has taken charge of the accounts and within a short time all articles that were given with the season tickets will be disposed of.
Mr. Smith expressed his high appreciation of the splendid work that was done by members of the Masonic fair association in asking the fair a success. He named personally many contributors of contributions and others who had forwarded the interests of the undertaking to raise money for the building of the Masonic temple.
The reports showed that up to date the fair had cleared a little over $50,000.

MEN'S CLUB.

Annual Meeting and Election of Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Men's Club of the Mt. Pleasant congregational Church, last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
President, Henry L. West; first vice president, North M. Little; second vice president, A. W. Tracy; third vice president, George C. Altman; recording secretary, James P. Hornaday; corresponding secretary, R. T. Webster; treasurer, William K. Quinn; chairman of the membership committee, Perry W. Gibson.
Mr. West, who was one of the founders of the club and has served it as president in the past, was elected president. The reports of the officers showed the club to be in a prosperous condition. The membership, which exceeds 200, is constantly being increased. Seven new members were admitted at last night's meeting.
Following the business meeting the club was addressed by B. H. Warner, who delivered an illustrated lecture on his recent visit to Egypt. The lantern slides presented were particularly good and his talk, which lasted an hour and a half, was interesting from start to finish. Gen. Spear, who has assisted Gen. West, told of some of his impressions in introducing the speaker of the evening. Vocal music was furnished by Mr. Charles W. Moore, with Mr. Edward Munn as accompanist. A social session was held in the basement of the church after the lecture and refreshments were served.
The club is planning for another season of high-grade work. In the past many of the most prominent men in the country have counted here as nowhere else. Nothing is more important than to keep up the splendid record it has made.

Money to lend at 5 and 6% on real estate. Frank T. Rawlings Co., 1205 Pa. ave.—Advts.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

Coroner's Certificate in Case of Robert Bell's Demise.

Acting Coroner Glazebrook made an investigation yesterday afternoon of the death of Robert Bell, the printer who was found dead in his room at the home of Mrs. Margaret Montgomery, 1135 Bell street northwest, as stated in yesterday's Star, and gave a certificate of accidental death. The condition of the room, the acting coroner thought, gave no indication that Bell had left the gas turned on purposely. Sunday night Bell wrote several letters to friends and his employer, the contents of them showing his plans for the future and containing no intimation that the printer contemplated suicide.
Bell occupied a hall room on the third floor of the house, and in order for him to make room to do his writing it was necessary for him to place a chair against the door. The door was not locked. The coroner, who had visited Bell and had probably been drinking, and he said this morning he thought his condition when he retired was such that he was probably unable to know what the gas was doing when he turned off the gas. Undertaker Wheatley took the body to Alexandria last night.

Cheap Excursion to Harpers Ferry

and Martinsburg, Berkeley Springs and Cumberland and Return.
Leaving New Union station, Washington, D. C., via Baltimore and Ohio, 8:15 a.m. Sunday, December 2, Round-trip tickets, Harpers Ferry and Martinsburg, $1.00; Berkeley Springs, $1.25, and Cumberland, $2.00. Splendid opportunity for Sunday outing.—Advts.

Senator's House Burglarized.

Some one entered the home of Senator Nelson, 648 East Capitol street, some time between 2 o'clock Saturday and yesterday morning and appropriated a rug twelve feet square, a painting of a Swedish girl and an ear of corn that was hanging on the wall. The thief or thieves gained entrance into the house by breaking the slats on a rear window. Detectives Farham and O'Brien have been detailed on the case.

Cause of Arthur Brown's Death.

An inquest was held at the morgue yesterday afternoon to determine the cause of Arthur Brown, colored, who was injured while engaged in an altercation several days ago with another colored man named Andrew Walker, as heretofore stated in The Star. The jury found that the death of Brown was due to pleurisy and that the loss of blood from the alleged assault contributed to his fatal illness. The verdict blamed Walker for Brown's death. Walker has not yet been apprehended, and Maj. Sweeney has offered a reward of $100 for his arrest.

WAR DEPARTMENT NEEDS.

Sum of $770,000 for Engineer Post at Washington Barracks.

Among the estimates for local improvements to be submitted to Congress at its coming session by the Secretary of War is one of $770,000 for additional buildings for the engineer post and school at Washington barracks' reservation, as follows: A building or buildings for post headquarters, engineer school, engineer library, engineer museum, etc., $350,000; barracks No. 2 (completing), $35,000; six additional double sets of quarters for non-commissioned officers' quarters, $60,000; new post hospital, $50,000; bachelor officers' quarters, $45,000; one new stable, $17,500; engineer school trade shops, $20,000; quartermaster's coal shed, $8,000; timber shed, $5,000; quarters for chaplain, $17,000; extending and completing the system of roads, sidewalks, sewers, water supply, and electrical distribution to serve these new buildings, $25,000; land observatory, $3,000; contingencies, $71,000. In addition, there is urgently required a storeroom for the future and wagons, which is estimated to cost $12,500.

Big, Beautiful Chrysanthemums.

The finest specimens grown are shown by Gude. Home grown, 1214 F St.—Advts.

Funeral of Ezekiah Naylor.

The funeral of Ezekiah Naylor, late of Pekin, Ill., was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of his son-in-law, Dr. George B. Corey, at 1240 Grand street.

Mr. Naylor was formerly a clerk in the pension office, and was considered by his associates to be a man of brilliant mind and keen will. The money and confinement of office life broke down his health, and he was for many years a confirmed invalid.

In memory of his old comrades he was a man of purest thought and gentle manners. His charity was broad and his religion the religion of love.

The interment was at Glenwood.

THE THEATER.

New National.

"The Straight Road," the new play by Clyde Fitch which Miss Blanche Walsh presented at the National last evening, will arouse contention. The play presents typical East Side conditions—the mob of Houston street, with its drinking women, roistering toughs, tenement dwellers and cripples, together with the social settlement enthusiast of means who conducts a mission house as a rival attraction to a grog shop. Opportunity for contrast to this mingled sordidness and optimism is afforded by the humor of some of the tenementers and by the charm of the garden of a country house on the Hudson. But those who are merely for color, costume and dramatic effect will probably regret the realism of dominant East Side scenes, and those who are totally serious will probably question the wisdom of the dramatist in marrying the two worlds. The realism of dominant East Side scenes, and those who are totally serious will probably question the wisdom of the dramatist in marrying the two worlds. The realism of dominant East Side scenes, and those who are totally serious will probably question the wisdom of the dramatist in marrying the two worlds.

MEN'S CLUB.

Annual Meeting and Election of Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Men's Club of the Mt. Pleasant congregational Church, last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
President, Henry L. West; first vice president, North M. Little; second vice president, A. W. Tracy; third vice president, George C. Altman; recording secretary, James P. Hornaday; corresponding secretary, R. T. Webster; treasurer, William K. Quinn; chairman of the membership committee, Perry W. Gibson.
Mr. West, who was one of the founders of the club and has served it as president in the past, was elected president. The reports of the officers showed the club to be in a prosperous condition. The membership, which exceeds 200, is constantly being increased. Seven new members were admitted at last night's meeting.
Following the business meeting the club was addressed by B. H. Warner, who delivered an illustrated lecture on his recent visit to Egypt. The lantern slides presented were particularly good and his talk, which lasted an hour and a half, was interesting from start to finish. Gen. Spear, who has assisted Gen. West, told of some of his impressions in introducing the speaker of the evening. Vocal music was furnished by Mr. Charles W. Moore, with Mr. Edward Munn as accompanist. A social session was held in the basement of the church after the lecture and refreshments were served.
The club is planning for another season of high-grade work. In the past many of the most prominent men in the country have counted here as nowhere else. Nothing is more important than to keep up the splendid record it has made.

Columbia.

A collecting mission entertainment with a comedian who has no trouble to make his audience laugh and keep it laughing is what was seen at the Columbia at the opening performance of "Comin' Through the Rye," by Geo. V. Hobart, with music by A. Baldwin Sloane. The plot hangs upon the efforts of Mrs. Kobb, widow of a chawing chewing-gum manufacturer, to get into society at Newport, and upon the struggle of a Fall River tailor to collect a bill. The plot almost vanishes soon after the play gets well started, but nobody misses it in the swirl of gaudy gags and the rapid succession of songs.
Frank Lator, remembered for his work in "The Slave Girl," as a Fall River tailor, proves the success of his methods from those usually employed by dialect comedians in bringing out the strong points of his characters. He sang "Clancy," was encoered eleven times, the audience even then seeming not to have had enough of it. His power of impersonation was shown in a number of impersonations. But, though Mr. Lator is one of the hits of the show, he is not the whole of it by any means. Miss Sallie Stenbier, as Mrs. Kobb, was a real success. Her song, "Clancy," was encoered eleven times, the audience even then seeming not to have had enough of it. His power of impersonation was shown in a number of impersonations. But, though Mr. Lator is one of the hits of the show, he is not the whole of it by any means. Miss Sallie Stenbier, as Mrs. Kobb, was a real success. Her song, "Clancy," was encoered eleven times, the audience even then seeming not to have had enough of it. His power of impersonation was shown in a number of impersonations.

B. D.'s Entertainment.

The B. D.'s entertained at a dance Friday evening. The hall was beautifully decorated with palms and autumn leaves. Supper was served. Among those present were the Misses E. Tate, F. Beall, R. Fellingham, A. J. Jager, E. Scott, B. Meek, L. Eickert, D. Plager, E. Daniels, and C. Claybaugh. Messrs. Lansdale, Fellingham, Tate, Meshaw, Womack, Baker, Smithson, Rodgers, Nevins, Kolb and Dana. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Watkins.

Reduced Prices Mean Questionable

quality. Take the only safe course and purchase our selected coats. Results guaranteed. J. Maury Dove Company.—Advts.

"District" Judgeships.

To the Editor of The Star:
I was very much pleased to notice the article, containing suggestion made in your editorial of the 15th instant on the selection of a successor to the late Judge McComas and other District officials. As stated in your paper, not only are local jurists ignored in the selection of our officers and our courts packed with men from the various distant sections of the country, who from their training in other jurisdictions and under laws and conditions vastly different from ours are but ill-fitted to administer justice in cases where they cannot possibly understand and sympathize with local conditions and needs, but all our officers, from the janitors in the public buildings to our highest officials, are selected from other cities and states—and usually for political reasons.
But, you may ask, what can we do? We are bound in shackles by the will of the President. He can by a word make or unmake the highest officer in our government, and consequently change the whole policy of our nation, and we dare not raise a hand in protest.
In no other state or nation of the English-speaking race can there be found a community so large and so heterogeneous that is subjected to, not that would tolerate to such an extent, the dominant rule of any one man or government.
The conditions of our country, from which to escape our forefathers, from the time of the great Magna Charta to our own indomitable Washington, spent billions of treasure and millions of human lives. The foreword of Anglo-Saxon liberty ever has been "No taxation without representation," and no Anglo-Saxon community can tolerate such a condition.

Chase's.

The feature of this week's offering at Chase's is a bright and amusing comedy-tale called "Peaches," by Mr. William Courtleigh, as John Henry, supported by Miss Collier, Mr. Frank E. Harrison and Richard P. Crolius. Presented one of the best sketches seen in vaudeville for some time.
Salerno was astonishing in his feats of jugglery, which were both original and mystifying. Bessie Wynn contributed sweet songs and fetching manners and was repeatedly recalled. Felix and Calve caught the audience with their dances and clever mimicry. The Gamble comedy trio in grotesque acrobatic feats were equally at home in buffoonery and provoked continuous laughter and applause.
The vaudeville company, consisting of an original bicycle riding, the climax being a somersault with a wheel. The Sharp brothers in black face in singing and dancing and some real motion pictures closed the very attractive bill.

New Academy.

The precocious Buster Brown and his sagacious canine comrade, Tige, indulged in many stunts and won merited applause from the large audience at the New Academy last night. The change of program from the melodrama to the comedy features of this playhouse to the well-staged and sparkling musical comedy or melange, "Buster Brown," was an innovation that was appreciated. It was a break in the monotony. Master Jimmie Rosen, in the title role, gave a masterful piece of juvenile acting and is clearly in the prodigy class, while Al Grady, as Tige, the prissy dog, was equally good. The political satire of the play was furnished in the merry whirl of songs, dances and drills of the gaily costumed chorus. The numerous ballet numbers and the clever competition of the songs and choruses are of the catchy 1907 variety. Mattie Lockett made an acceptable Mary Jane, Buster's girl, and Len Hayes was quaint and funny as Rocky O'Hare. Others who won applause were Fred Wilson as Gladys O'Flynn, the cook; Harry Hyle as Doc; and the comedienne, Lucille Hopkins, Minnie Lee, Frances Wilson and Mabel Carver. The military spectacle drill department of the "Busters," "Buster's Bobby Burns" Brigade, was clearly one of the leading features of the comedy. Buster responded to a certain call at the close of the act and was furnished a short lecture on "The Duties of a Dutiable Son" to the Washington boys and girls.

Majestic.

"The Sign of the Cross," a play from the pen of Conan Doyle, is the offering at the Majestic this week. The Kathryn Purnell Stock Company was, as usual, in high favor, as was demonstrated by the applause showered upon the members of the company upon making their appearance before the footlights last night and again during the recitation of their respective roles.
The play is a deep detective story with the famous story book hero Sherlock Holmes as the principal character, who, in the person of Frank Munnell, looks capable of reaching depths of mystery far beyond the range of the ordinary detective. Miss Purnell is well suited to the part of Miss Marston. Jeff Murphy is seen in the role of the distinguished Dr. Watson, and was much liked for the impersonation. W. Stanley James and Ed. Redding, as the escaped convict and Tonga, an East Indian, were well acted and their roles with conviction and naturalness. Miss Deshon, as Mrs. John Sholto, an adventuress, was clever, as was Miss Helen Hyle. The comedy was furnished by Harry Bewley, as the drunken boatman.

New Lyceum.

Watson's Burlesques, introducing William E. Watson in a two-act comedy, entitled "Krosvemeyer's Alley," was greeted by two large and enthusiastic audiences at the New Lyceum yesterday.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Radically and permanently cures. In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as SARSAPARILLA. 100 doses $1.

CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

Meeting Last Night Devoted to Discussion of Parade.

Almost the entire time of the session of the Central Labor Union at its regular weekly meeting last night was devoted to the discussion of ways and means and plans for the big labor parade and mass meeting to be held next Tuesday evening. The outline of the demonstration, as given in The Star yesterday, was favorably commented upon, and the program as published, will be carried into effect. Chairman James J. McCracken of the committee in charge of the arrangements stated that it is expected there will be more than 30,000 men in line carrying torches or transparencies and illuminating Pennsylvania avenue with a glare of light as it has never been illuminated before.
There will be many bands of music and drum corps. Already eight brass bands have been engaged, and the Musical Union has agreed to furnish two bands free of cost for the Convention Hall meeting following the parade. At least two ladies' auxiliaries, those of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Columbia Typographical Union, will participate in the procession, which will form at the Peace monument in 7th and M streets, and will march down Pennsylvania avenue with a glare of light as it has never been illuminated before.

Gayety.

The Rose Hill English Folly Company with one of the best bills of the season is the attraction presented at the Gayety this week. Two good burlettas are given by the company, in each of which George W. Rice takes the leading part, ably assisted by T. F. Thomas. The chorus, led by Lydia Vynor, is much in evidence and presents some good musical numbers. The four London acrobats, perform astonishing feats, their dancing being unsurpassed. The Barron's burlesque monologue, consisting of dogs and cats garbed in wild animal's skins. There are five other acts, all above the average, including Lydia Vynor in songs, "The New Boy," a farce, by John B. Cain.

"The Secret Orchard" Tonight.

The opening performance of "The Secret Orchard" did not occur last night, owing to the fact that a baggage car was carried to Richmond by mistake. The first performance in Washington is scheduled for this evening.

A Fine Program.

Miss Irene Dietrich, soprano, and Miss Olive Demarest, pianist, gave a musical program at the Virgil Clavier School last night which met with the approval of a critical audience. Miss Dietrich, accompanied by Miss Demarest, sang compositions by Grieg, Strauss, D. Hardelt, Weber, Nevin and Miss Walcott. Her repertoire included piano numbers by Chopin, Brahms, Liszt and Moszkowski. Each musician received hearty encores.

Bad Luck of Peacemaker.

While Louis Monroe was trying to act as peacemaker in a fight which Ray Batson is alleged to have started, Batson, it is stated, turned on the would-be peacemaker and slashed him several times across the face with a knife. Batson was arrested by Policeman Lusby of the fifth precinct and was charged in the Police Court this morning with assault with a dangerous weapon. He pleaded guilty and was committed to jail in default of $500 bond to await the action of the grand jury.
Batson was chastising a woman, it is stated, when Monroe interfered. Batson wielded the knife in resentment for the interference, said the police, and Monroe was taken to the hospital with a check and forehead as a result.

B. D.'s Entertainment.

The B. D.'s entertained at a dance Friday evening. The hall was beautifully decorated with palms and autumn leaves. Supper was served. Among those present were the Misses E. Tate, F. Beall, R. Fellingham, A. J. Jager, E. Scott, B. Meek, L. Eickert, D. Plager, E. Daniels, and C. Claybaugh. Messrs. Lansdale, Fellingham, Tate, Meshaw, Womack, Baker, Smithson, Rodgers, Nevins, Kolb and Dana. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Watkins.

Reduced Prices Mean Questionable

quality. Take the only safe course and purchase our selected coats. Results guaranteed. J. Maury Dove Company.—Advts.

"District" Judgeships.

To the Editor of The Star:
I was very much pleased to notice the article, containing suggestion made in your editorial of the 15th instant on the selection of a successor to the late Judge McComas and other District officials. As stated in your paper, not only are local jurists ignored in the selection of our officers and our courts packed with men from the various distant sections of the country, who from their training in other jurisdictions and under laws and conditions vastly different from ours are but ill-fitted to administer justice in cases where they cannot possibly understand and sympathize with local conditions and needs, but all our officers, from the janitors in the public buildings to our highest officials, are selected from other cities and states—and usually for political reasons.
But, you may ask, what can we do? We are bound in shackles by the will of the President. He can by a word make or unmake the highest officer in our government, and consequently change the whole policy of our nation, and we dare not raise a hand in protest.
In no other state or nation of the English-speaking race can there be found a community so large and so heterogeneous that is subjected to, not that would tolerate to such an extent, the dominant rule of any one man or government.
The conditions of our country, from which to escape our forefathers, from the time of the great Magna Charta to our own indomitable Washington, spent billions of treasure and millions of human lives. The foreword of Anglo-Saxon liberty ever has been "No taxation without representation," and no Anglo-Saxon community can tolerate such a condition.

Chase's.

The feature of this week's offering at Chase's is a bright and amusing comedy-tale called "Peaches," by Mr. William Courtleigh, as John Henry, supported by Miss Collier, Mr. Frank E. Harrison and Richard P. Crolius. Presented one of the best sketches seen in vaudeville for some time.
Salerno was astonishing in his feats of jugglery, which were both original and mystifying. Bessie Wynn contributed sweet songs and fetching manners and was repeatedly recalled. Felix and Calve caught the audience with their dances and clever mimicry. The Gamble comedy trio in grotesque acrobatic feats were equally at home in buffoonery and provoked continuous laughter and applause.
The vaudeville company, consisting of an original bicycle riding, the climax being a somersault with a wheel. The Sharp brothers in black face in singing and dancing and some real motion pictures closed the very attractive bill.

New Academy.

The precocious Buster Brown and his sagacious canine comrade, Tige, indulged in many stunts and won merited applause from the large audience at the New Academy last night. The change of program from the melodrama to the comedy features of this playhouse to the well-staged and sparkling musical comedy or melange, "Buster Brown," was an innovation that was appreciated. It was a break in the monotony. Master Jimmie Rosen, in the title role, gave a masterful piece of juvenile acting and is clearly in the prodigy class, while Al Grady, as Tige, the prissy dog, was equally good. The political satire of the play was furnished in the merry whirl of songs, dances and drills of the gaily costumed chorus. The numerous ballet numbers and the clever competition of the songs and choruses are of the catchy 1907 variety. Mattie Lockett made an acceptable Mary Jane, Buster's girl, and Len Hayes was quaint and funny as Rocky O'Hare. Others who won applause were Fred Wilson as Gladys O'Flynn, the cook; Harry Hyle as Doc; and the comedienne, Lucille Hopkins, Minnie Lee, Frances Wilson and Mabel Carver. The military spectacle drill department of the "Busters," "Buster's Bobby Burns" Brigade, was clearly one of the leading features of the comedy. Buster responded to a certain call at the close of the act and was furnished a short lecture on "The Duties of a Dutiable Son" to the Washington boys and girls.

Majestic.

"The Sign of the Cross," a play from the pen of Conan Doyle, is the offering at the Majestic this week. The Kathryn Purnell Stock Company was, as usual, in high favor, as was demonstrated by the applause showered upon the members of the company upon making their appearance before the footlights last night and again during the recitation of their respective roles.
The play is a deep detective story with the famous story book hero Sherlock Holmes as the principal character, who, in the person of Frank Munnell, looks capable of reaching depths of mystery far beyond the range of the ordinary detective. Miss Purnell is well suited to the part of Miss Marston. Jeff Murphy is seen in the role of the distinguished Dr. Watson, and was much liked for the impersonation. W. Stanley James and Ed. Redding, as the escaped convict and Tonga, an East Indian, were well acted and their roles with conviction and naturalness. Miss Deshon, as Mrs. John Sholto, an adventuress, was clever, as was Miss Helen Hyle. The comedy was furnished by Harry Bewley, as the drunken boatman.

New Lyceum.

Watson's Burlesques, introducing William E. Watson in a two-act comedy, entitled "Krosvemeyer's Alley," was greeted by two large and enthusiastic audiences at the New Lyceum yesterday.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Radically and permanently cures. In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as SARSAPARILLA. 100 doses $1.

CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

Meeting Last Night Devoted to Discussion of Parade.

Almost the entire time of the session of the Central Labor Union at its regular weekly meeting last night was devoted to the discussion of ways and means and plans for the big labor parade and mass meeting to be held next Tuesday evening. The outline of the demonstration, as given in The Star yesterday, was favorably commented upon, and the program as published, will be carried into effect. Chairman James J. McCracken of the committee in charge of the arrangements stated that it is expected there will be more than 30,000 men in line carrying torches or transparencies and illuminating Pennsylvania avenue with a glare of light as it has never been illuminated before.
There will be many bands of music and drum corps. Already eight brass bands have been engaged, and the Musical Union has agreed to furnish two bands free of cost for the Convention Hall meeting following the parade. At least two ladies' auxiliaries, those of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Columbia Typographical Union, will participate in the procession, which will form at the Peace monument in 7th and M streets, and will march down Pennsylvania avenue with a glare of light as it has never been illuminated before.

Gayety.

The Rose Hill English Folly Company with one of the best bills of the season is the attraction presented at the Gayety this week. Two good burlettas are given by the company, in each of which George W. Rice takes the leading part, ably assisted by T. F. Thomas. The chorus, led by Lydia Vynor, is much in evidence and presents some good musical numbers. The four London acrobats, perform astonishing feats, their dancing being unsurpassed. The Barron's burlesque monologue, consisting of dogs and cats garbed in wild animal's skins. There are five other acts, all above the average, including Lydia Vynor in songs, "The New Boy," a farce, by John B. Cain.

"The Secret Orchard" Tonight.

The opening performance of "The Secret Orchard" did not occur last night, owing to the fact that a baggage car was carried to Richmond by mistake. The first performance in Washington is scheduled for this evening.

A Fine Program.

Miss Irene Dietrich, soprano, and Miss Olive Demarest, pianist, gave a musical program at the Virgil Clavier School last night which met with the approval of a critical audience. Miss Dietrich, accompanied by Miss Demarest, sang compositions by Grieg, Strauss, D. Hardelt, Weber, Nevin and Miss Walcott. Her repertoire included piano numbers by Chopin, Brahms, Liszt and Moszkowski. Each musician received hearty encores.

Bad Luck of Peacemaker.

While